Student’s Name ___________________________________________  Grade in September _____

Title: _________________________________________________  Author: __________________________

Directions: On each line, write an important event from the nonfiction book you read. These events should be arranged in the order in which they occurred. In the boxes underneath each line, you should provide additional details to show why the events are significant.

1. ______________________________________________________________________________________

2. ______________________________________________________________________________________

3. ______________________________________________________________________________________

4. ______________________________________________________________________________________

5. ______________________________________________________________________________________